

On the cover
The West has to deal with tyrants but it should do so on its own terms: leader, page 9. Our briefing begins with the bloody battle in Libya, but also brings in Egypt, Tunisia, Morocco, Yemen and the Gulf, pages 21-25. David Cameron searches for a new foreign policy, page 52, and so do his peers in Europe: Charlemagne, page 48. The diplomacy of soldiers, page 53. The world is badly placed to cope with another oil crisis, page 67
